

April 23, 1996

WHY MEN WATCH SO MUCH TV

I think men watch TV because it is a place in which they can “hide” from the world of pressure in which they work and obtain detached personal gratification without having to expend any effort to get it.

Here, they can unwind and “lock out” interruptions from their mates, kids and troubles.

© Robert Jorrie, 1996